You can access these records through the Historical Land Records Viewer \(HLRV\).

What is the Old System Purchasers Index?

The Old System Purchasers Index commenced on 1 July 1896 and is a manual index of persons acquiring or purchasing an estate or interest in land. The Automated Deeds Indexing System was implemented in 1992 where Old System registrations can be accessed using the Deed name search in the NSW LRS Online Portal.

Prior to 1908 the Old System Purchasers Index was compiled in alphabetical order by surname only. After 1908, it was compiled in alphabetical order by first name and surnames.

The Old System Purchasers Index is also compiled in chronological order. The index contains details of:

- the type of deed
- the book and number of the deed
- a brief description of the property.

While the Old System Purchasers Index is compiled from the Vendors Index, it is not as complete as it only contains references to the owners of land and not the vendors in the deed.
